A Message From Our Founder

I was just musing on what a monumental power and influence music exerts on humanity as a whole, but we don't seem to honor or recognize its importance in the fabric of our everyday lives...

It's taken for granted...

As is air and water and love and all the things that we cannot live without.

It is in the background and forefront of every breath we take...
From the lullaby to the funeral dirge.
